VICTORY LOST $800.

Didn't Know There Was a Hole in the Inside Pocket. John T. Victory, a liquor dealer, of 13 Alabama avenue, Brooklyn, to-day mourns the loss of $800 in crisp, new bank-notes, and he has asked the police street, Greenpoint, applied in the Ewen to help him find the man who found his Street Court, Williamsburg, to-day for money.

Victory has an account with the lirooklyn Savings Bank, at Clinton and Pierrepont streets. Yesterday afternoon he wen downtown and withdrew $800 from the institution. He folded the money very carefully, and stowed it away in his inside pocket. Then he started for home. He got on a Kings County "L" train at the City Hall and rode out to the Alabama avenue station. On reaching home he discovered that his money was gone. County "L" train at the City Hall and rode out to the Alahama avenue station. On reaching home he discovered that his money was gone. He reported the case to the police. In examining the pocket in which he had placed his money, Victory discovered that there was a large hole in the bottom of it. The "roll" dropped through this hole, and fell out of the lining of the cout to the street.

HORSE IN A BAKERY.

Milkman's Mettlesome Steed Caused Protty Clerks to Flee.

A runaway horse created considerable excitement on Bedford avenue, Williamsburg, this morning. Thomas Riley, a milk dealer, of 166 North Sixth street, went into a house near the corner of Bedford avenue and Hewes street. His lorse became frightened at a passing bleycle, dashed up the avenue as far as Penn street, and then turning sharply, made a rush through the plate-glass window of Frederick Hoarer's bakery, 641 Bedford avenue.

The glass cracked and flew in all directions, and the horse, after getting halfway through, stuck fast. The only persons in the store were the two protty female clerks and three customers. They made a hasty exit from the place by way of a rear dorr.

The horse completely destroyed the show-window exhibit of cake, &c., but was only slightly cut, and after being taken out, the milkman went on to cover his milk route.

He is also chairman of the Executive Committee of the Seventeenth Ward Citizens' Union and one of the leaders in the movement to suppress the Newtown Creek nulsances.

Viemeister is a young man, is connected with the Equitable Life Assurance Company, and at present is also studying law. About a year ago he was a elected Secretary in the Citizens' Union. Before he made his appearance upon the scene. Griffiths held the reputation of being the best orator in the Citizens' Union. Since then, it is said, Viemeister has outshone him. This has caused considerable jealousy between the two.

On Saturday last there was a meeting of the Anti-Newtown Creek Nuisance Association in Long Island City, Viemeister at the dead of the Anti-Newtown Creek Nuisance as speech. The following day Griffiths met Viemeister at Mankatsan washed.
